

Pakistan's leading engineering company having nationwide operations in the line of supplying, installing, maintaining, operating and troubleshooting branded elevator and escalators is requiring the following dynamic and energetic professionals:

Operation Engineer (Preferred Discipline: Electronic Engineer)

We are looking for an 'Operation Engineer' who is able to manage operations and maintenance of our products, the position would require managing the sales, planning, coordination, operation & maintenance of our products in the delegated region. The applicant should be an electronic graduate having good communication, leadership, interpersonal, IT skills, and multi tasker. The nature of job requires frequent field operations and travelling.

Planning & Coordination Engineer

We are looking for a 'P&C Engineer' who is good at planning and coordination of projects. The applicant should be an electrical-mechanical graduate having good communication, leadership, interpersonal and IT skills (Primavera) required. The applicant should be good at managing multiple projects. The nature of job requires frequent field operations and travelling.

Engineering Intern (6 Weeks)

We are looking for an 'Engineering Intern' who is having a strong foundation of principles of electrical-mechanical engineering concepts. The applicant should be an electrical-mechanical undergraduate having keen interest in research and intrigue to problem solving, interested in development of procedures and methodologies, solving of problems through research. The applicant should be having good communication, leadership, interpersonal and IT skills required.

QHSE Engineer (Preferred Discipline: Industrial)

We are looking for a 'QHSE Engineer' who has a strong understanding of the principles of Quality Management and HSE. The applicant should be an electrical-mechanical graduate having good communication, leadership, interpersonal and IT skills required. The applicant should have good knowledge of HSE, lean six sigma and quality management. The nature of job requires frequent field operations and travelling.

PCB Engineer (Preferred Discipline: Electronic Engineering)

We are looking for a 'PCB Engineer' who is able to understand the electronic design of PCBs, identify and rectify all the faults of PCB hands on practically. The applicant should be an Electronic graduate having good communication, leadership, interpersonal and IT skills with keen interest to work in PCB Repair Labs.

Please apply in confidence latest by 15th June 2021 along with a recent photograph through an email and share your resume at hrdept.elv@gmail.com