

One of the prominent Employer from FMCG industry is seeking an experienced 'Business Applications Executive'

Position: Business Applications Executive

Education:

- Minimum Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science / MIS / Information Technology with experience of business applications programming and support
- Preferably Microsoft .NET and SharePoint Certification, Mobile Application Development is a benefit

Skills:

- At least two full project life cycle of business application. System / gap analysis, business process engineering, hands on configuration, functional and technical specifications, product testing and user training
- Experience with .Net Programming with SQL/Oracle database and other core programming languages.
- Knowledge of business domain applications
- Exposure to emerging technology.
- Proven technical skills in for application configuration and development in the FMCG industry.
- Ability to explain complex ideas to those with limited IT and systems knowledge
- Customer service and relationship management experience

Experience:

- 2- 5 years in managing software applications and database management, especially custom designed software
- Preferred experience in .NET programming with SQL/Oracle database and/or SharePoint integration with 0365 power apps

Interested candidates send their resumes at tirmizi@neduet.edu.pk, mention position in subject line.

Deadline to Apply: 20th April,2022.

